

River Clean up Event

Saturday, April 23rd

Friends of Barr Lake joined 20 other BMW volunteers, including members of DU's Zeta Beta Tau fraternity, at the River Clean Up event.

This project was sponsored by the Greenway Foundation and Denver Parks and Recreation.

Volunteers started at Dartmouth and the river and worked their way north.

A fabulous breakfast was prepared by staff at the Littleton/Englewood wastewater treatment plant.

BMW
volunteers enjoying a delicious breakfast prepared the Littleton/Englewood wastewater treatment plant staff.

BMW volunteers picking up trash along the South Platte River

Friends of Barr Lake volunteers

The younger generation of BMW volunteers

